This makes them ideal for wheel chair bound folk who want to carry some of their belongings, or even just themselves, up a steep slope using a wheelchair. They are also a short drive (if wheel-chair accessible) to the Safeside and MMB. They are well versed in making best use of the SMMB. Walking around the site, you will notice that there are eight or so features that are visible. This is because before the SMMB was built, there were four or five of these, all within a one-and-a-half mile radius. These are shown on the map of the park. Some of these can be viewed by visitors, but you will have to be patient and climb up the steep hill that is facing the southern-most entrance of the road to Tilsley. .
