You are here Konta storms into French Open quarters British No.1 Johanna Konta storms into the French Open quarter-finals after clinching her seventh win on her return to the sport following childbirth. Addressing a packed press room, the 14th seed told reporters "I'm ready to play" to end a three-month hiatus from the game. Konta dismissed Czech teen Marketa Vondrousova 6-3 6-1 in the last round to guarantee a quarter-final with world No.1 Angelique Kerber. If she manages to advance from her last-eight encounter with the 2014 champion, the World No.2 will face unseeded French sensation Caroline Wozniacki in the last four. Konta was too hot to handle for V
